

Metastorm History

Metastorm continues to deliver on its strategy to be a market leader and innovator for software and solutions that drive enterprise effectiveness and optimization. Its ability to establish and sustain leadership has made Metastorm an ideal partner for organizations seeking proven technology, a commitment to innovation, and long-term growth. Key milestones in the company's history include:

- 1996 – Metastorm incorporates to become one of the first pure-play BPM vendors.
- 1998 – Metastorm acquires Sysgenics for core technology that became the platform for developing Metastorm e-Work®, the company's first BPM application. Metastorm also acquired BEI, allowing it to establish a channel partnership through which Novell would distribute the Metastorm software.
- 2000 – Metastorm acquires Software Systems Group as the foundation for establishing its BPM best practices consulting and implementation practice.
- 2004 – Metastorm surpasses 600 customers worldwide and is recognized by Gartner as a Leader in its Pure-Play BPM Magic Quadrant report.
- 2005 – Metastorm acquires CommerceQuest to breakaway from the pack in an increasingly crowded vendor market and delivers a full roundtrip BPM Suite, called Metastorm BPM®, for both human-centric and integration-centric processes.
- 2006 – Metastorm is recognized by Gartner in its BPM Suite Magic Quadrant report as one of the few vendors to make the evolution from a pure-play BPM vendor to a full-scale enterprise BPM Suite.
- 2007 – Metastorm propels itself beyond a BPMS-only focus with the acquisition of Proforma – adding industry-leading BPA and EA solutions to its portfolio and enabling it to create “the Metastorm Enterprise” for end-to-end visibility and coordination of strategy, analysis, and execution for over 1100 customers worldwide.
- 2007 – Acquired Process Competence, a European firm specializing in helping organizations design and optimize customer-oriented business processes.
- 2007 – Acquired Spotlight Data, a software company specializing in process data collection and analysis, and launches the Metastorm Discovery™ product.
- 2008 – Metastorm filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to a proposed initial public offering of its common stock.
